Harlem Collection

Upgrade your living space with a sofa designed for both enduring style and everyday comfort. This two-seater features a clean, versatile silhouette that easily adapts to your existing decor. With its soft upholstered colours and subtle mid-century modern touches, it brings a warm and inviting feel to apartments, cozy living rooms, or home offices.

Each of the two back cushions includes subtle tufting details with horizontal stitching and two shallow indentations

Tapered Wooden Legs: The sofa is elevated on dark-stained wood legs that taper towards the floor, giving it a mid-century modern aesthetic.

Flared Armrests: The armrests are gently curved, flaring slightly outward from the inside seat to the exterior edge.

High-Profile Seat Cushions: The bottom cushions are notably thick and boxy, indicating substantial interior padding.
