Harrington Collection

With its sophisticated silhouette, elegant detailing, and premium textured upholstery, the Harrington range delivers an instant touch of refinement to any interior. But beauty is only half the story. The Harrington is meticulously engineered with thoughtful, customer-friendly features that make daily life easier and relaxation a true luxury.

-  Upholstered in a high-grade, durable woven fabric in a choice of versatile colours that offers a tactile finish, exceptional wear resistance, and easy maintenance
-  Superior Comfort & Support: Deep, high-resilience seat cushions work in tandem with a supportive backrest to provide the perfect balance of “sink-in” comfort and structural integrity.
-  Raised Leg : Rather than sitting flush or low to the floor, a sofa featuring elevated feet creates a distinct visual break.
-  Side pillows : introduce an extra layer of texture and coziness. They break up the rigid lines of the armrests and invite you to sink in, making the sofa look effortlessly welcoming without losing its refined shape.
